ANY LITTLE EYE

Any little eye
That's the wrong little eye,
Is the right little eye for me.
It doesn't have to look
Like the eye of a croak,
If a bad eye it should be.
I can put it right,
Improve its sight,
And make it so it will see.
For any little eye,
That's a wrong little eye,
Is the right little eye for me.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, as a Spring Medicine, is the Best.

Spring sickness comes in some degree to every man, woman and child in our climate. It is that run-down condition of the system that results from impure, impoverished, devitalized blood. It is marked by loss of appetite and that tired feeling, and in many cases by some form of eruption.

The best way to treat spring sickness is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Ask your druggist for this old reliable family medicine. It purifies, enriches and revitalizes the blood. It is an all-the-year-round alternative and tonic, and is absolutely the best Spring medicine.

Northfield's Garden Contest

For several years the Union club of Northfield has received and distributed, among the children of the village, government flower and garden seeds and has held two exhibitions, one in August and another in early October, with considerable success. Last year these seeds were given through the superintendent of schools not only in the village, but to all the schools in the town of Northfield and in the autumn an exhibition was held which would have done credit to many a county fair. The prizes were awarded for the best collection of vegetables and flowers and for the best individual article grown. Arrangements are on foot for this year's prize contest.

A Peace Prayer

Following is the text of the peace prayer, which Pope Benedict XX directed to be offered in all Catholic churches last Sunday, Passion Sunday:—

"Disunited by the horrors of a war which is bringing ruin to peoples and nations, we turn, O Jesus, to Thy most loving heart as to our last hope, O God of Mercy, with tears we invoke Thee to end this fearful scourge; O King of Peace, we humbly implore the peace for which we long. For Thy sacred heart Thou didst shed forth over the world Thine charity, so that discord might end and love might reign among men. During Thy life on earth Thy heart beat with tender compassion for the sorrows of men; in this hour, made terrible with burning hate, with bloodshed and with slaughter, once more may Thy divine heart be moved to pity.

"Pity the countless mothers in anguish for the fate of their sons; pity the numberless families now bereaved of their fathers; pity Europe, over which broods such havoc and disaster. Do Thou inspire rulers and peoples with counsels of meekness; do Thou heal the discords that tear the nations asunder; Thou who didst shed Thy precious blood that they might live as brothers, bring men together once more in loving harmony. And as once before to the cry of the Apostle Peter, 'Save us, Lord, we perish,' Thou didst answer with words of mercy and didst still the raging waves, so now design to hear our trustful prayer, and give back to the world peace and tranquility.

"And do thou, O most holy Virgin, as in other times of sore distress, be now our help, our protection and our safeguard. Amen."

NEW DEPARTURE

Selling Medicines at Half Price Under Guarantee of Cure

After two months of remarkable sales, Arthur L. Cheney, the enterprising druggist, says that his plan of selling at half-price the regular 50 cent size of Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, and guaranteeing to refund the money if it does not cure, has been the greatest success ever known.

Anyone suffering with dyspepsia, constipation, liver troubles, headaches, dizziness, coated tongue, or the general tired feeling, caused by inactive liver and bowels or disordered indigestion, should take advantage of Arthur L. Cheney's new departure and buy a bottle of Dr. Howard's specific at half price, with his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure.

Daily Thought.

God is better served in resisting a temptation to evil than in many formal prayers.—William Penn.

"SPACE TO REPENT"

God's Definition of Time of Greatest Significance to Mankind.

God's definition of time is a "space to repent." This is its greatest importance and significance to mankind. We are wont to speak of time as the measure of duration. God calls it "a space to repent." It is not wiser to accept a divine lexicon rather than a human one? According to God's definition man is not here primarily to establish a home and fortune, but "to repent."

God is the great giver. But as Fenelon said, "To show us the worth of time, God, most liberal of all other things, is exceedingly frugal in the dispensing of that, for he never gives us two moments together, nor grants us a second till he has withdrawn the first, still keeping the third in his own hands, so we are in perfect uncertainty whether we shall have it or not. The true manner for preparing for the last moment is to spend all the others well and ever to expect that. We devote upon this world as if it were never to have an end, and we neglect the next as if it were never to have a beginning."

How we trifle away our brief and uncertain "space to repent!" Though it is brief and uncertain the period allotted is sufficient if we will use it, else God would not have given it. Its brevity and uncertainty is God's appeal against delay. Had the space to repent been fixed and sure for a long, definite period, would any give the matter a thought until near or at the last moment, and the whole purpose of life thus be defeated? The life is more important than time. But we have no fixed and definite space in which to repent.

Now Is the Time.

"Thou canst not delay," said Richter, "for a single moment the flight of time, and thou complainest that time is a continual overdropping of moments, which fall down one upon the other and evaporate. Above hangs, unchanged, the future, and underneath grows the past, and becomes always larger the farther it flies back. And thou askest, 'What remains with me?' 'The present,' I answer. However much time may fly away from you, the present is your eternity and never abandons you. Time is the chrysalis of eternity."

The "space to repent" is bounded upon every side by "now." You cannot repent in the past or in the future, for you will never be in either. You are ever and always in the present.

You have space to repent. It is now, just now. "Today if ye will hear his voice," etc. "Now is the accepted time." "Come, for all things are now ready."

Delay not, delay not, O sinner, to come. For mercy still lingers and calls thee to-day.
Her voice is not heard in the vale of the tomb.
Her message unheeded will soon pass away.

Delay not, delay not, the spirit of grace, Long grieved and resisted may take his sad flight,
And leave thee in darkness to finish thy race.
And sink in the vale of eternity's night.

God's Demand of Men.

What God asks of men is to have repentance for their rebellion against him and his authority and to have faith in his son, whom he sent as a ransom for the sins of the world. Repentance is that sorrow for sin which will cause one to turn from it. It means turning from evil to good. This is clearly a duty. He gives you space in which to perform that duty. And he tells you how.

By faith in him whom he hath sent. Repentance and faith go together. "Repentance is the earthly side of faith, faith the heavenly side of repentance," or "Repentance is the tear in the eye of faith."

The space given for these things is the present. The time for the sinner to stop and turn about is now. The space to repent is limited in duration. Your "now" will go on forever, but not your opportunity to repent. The time is rapidly coming to all of which it is written:

"He that is unjust, let him be unjust still; and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still; and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still; and he that is holy, let him be holy still."

Sin Destroys.

A large bald eagle was shot in the Alleghenies. When the hunter went to examine the prize, he was surprised to find one of the eagle's claws held firmly in a strong steel trap, having a chain five feet long, both of these showing the marks of the blows given them by the eagle in his efforts to free himself. Although the trap and chain had not been heavy enough to prevent the eagle from flying, they wearied the bird and brought it within reach of the rifle. This is but an illustration of how men and women of talent and education, capable of attaining and holding positions among the highest and best, are entrapped and chained by sin and rendered incapable of rising to the heights they might have gained.—Homiletic Review
